Call For Papers:
The Southwestern Philosophical Society
2022 Annual Meeting

November 11-12, 2022
University of Nevada, Las Vegas

Overview: Papers on any philosophical topic are welcome. All papers accepted and presented at the conference will be published in the Southwest Philosophy Review.

Submission Guidelines: Electronic submissions are required and should be submitted to https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=swps2022 Papers must be in PDF format. Papers submitted in any other format cannot be processed. (If accepted for publication, the author must provide a MS Word [.doc/.docx] or Rich Text Format [.rtf]). Papers may not exceed 3,000 words in length (not including notes and references). Papers exceeding this length will not be considered. Submissions should include a word count and 150-word abstract (not included in total word count) on the title page, and should be prepared for anonymous review.

Submission Deadline: The deadline for submissions is July 1, 2022.

Travel Grants: SWPS offers a limited number of $150 travel grants to help defray travel costs. The grants are available to early career philosophers (defined as graduate students or scholars who completed their PhD no more than three years ago) and philosophers from underrepresented groups. Authors who are eligible for these grants should indicate this on the cover page of their submission.

Membership: You must be a member of the society to present and publish in the journal. Dues may be paid when registering for the conference. To join, send inquiries to Deborah Heikes, The University of Alabama in Huntsville, heikesd@uah.edu.

Contact: All questions about submissions should be emailed to Emily McGill at emcgill@coastal.edu.
